You are invited to join the staff of Homewood Health Centre for the following Hospital Rounds presentation.

Suicide: The Clinician's Responsibility?

PRESENTER: Rex Roman, PhD, University of Toronto

Suicide is unlike any other death and dealing with the risk of suicide is unlike dealing with any other medical or mental health condition. In this presentation the relationship between the health professional and suicidal individual is examined. The professional obligation a clinician carries, the role they may play and the moral distress they experience in a suicidal death is explored with a focus on reasonable limits of personal and professional responsibility.

DATE: Wednesday, June 4, 2008
LOCATION: Homewood Lecture Theatre
TIME: Lunch - 11:30 a.m.
Presentation - 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

TO REGISTER: Cathy Barber,
519-824-1010, extension 2580
RSVP by: Monday, June 2, 2008
Lunch provided by Homewood.

This event is an accredited group learning activity as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons Canada. Twenty-five percent of the time for these rounds will be devoted to interactive learning.
